OJAI MID-YEAR'S REPORT 2016/17

The operating year started with the inauguration of the first ever OJAI exhibition at Grölle Pass Projects in Wuppertal, Germany. "Low Hanging Fruit" included postal correspondences displayed alongside the results of our Policy and Instincts Poll. Floor plans for the OJAI world head-quarters designed by ScAle Architects of Perugia were also on show. A series of events were programmed during the run of the exhibition including a Dexia Defunct concert, a lecture by publicist Ernst Wolff and a finissage where OJAI performed a bingo game supported by Julia Zinnbauer who presented the numbers and OJAI monogrammed prizes.

A second extended OJAI exhibition, "Fruit Solutions", opened in February at Laura Mars Gallery in Berlin. Dexia Defunct performed and launched their debut cassette album at the opening. The exhibition program included two talks, a film screening of "Rollover" from 1981 and - back by popular demand - an OJAI bingo game with Sophie Iremonger as glamorous assistant. ScAle Architects (Benedetta Alessi and Maurizio Scalera) were in attendance as honoured guests.

During the year 2017 we collaborated with two publications. ScAle Architects interviewed both OJAI directors for Italy's L'Apperitivo Magazine. D. Holland-Moritz wrote a speculative piece of writing inspired by the organization that was published in Austria's PERSPEKTIVE literature magazine. In June, Dexia Defunct performed their General Audit 1 sound installation at LUCA Scholl of Arts in Brussels, Belgium.

At the time of writing preparations were underway for the third OJAI exhibition. "Fruit Efficiency" opens on August 26th 2017 in Dallas, Texas.
